Sally Clarkson is the mother of four children, all homeschooled, as well as being a well-known speaker worldwide and the author of numerous books. With her husband Clay, Whole Heart Ministries was founded to encourage and equip Christian parents through books, workshops, and seminars, as well as their website (www.wholeheart.org).

Testimonies of conference participants:

After 12+ years of homeschooling, one can become tired of hearing about a new curriculum or educational approach. However, Mrs. Clarkson went to the « heart » of home education by speaking to the heart of this parent who desires to train the hearts of her children. Kelly

Thank you. This kind of conference is a source of joy and puts a balm on my heart.

It was so encouraging and edifying.
